by sportswire4u.blogspot.com

INDIANAPOLIS, July 12

The Indiana (Youth) Cricket Association will conduct an introduction to cricket workshop on the south side of Indianapolis on July 16 from 7.30 to 9 p.m. Giving this information here today, INYCA president Jatin Patel said that 25 youngsters will be introduced to the cricket and also play an exhibition match. The new coaches will also get an opportunity to get certified for "basic of cricket."

Keeping in view the size of the group of trainees, the association has limit of eight coaches for this clinic.

Mr Jatin said "most of the reading for "Basics of Cricket" is available online. The field session is more of technical skills and drills for players and coaches. To get certified coaches must complete online reading, field session and test at the end.

For more details interested youngsters / coaches may contact Mr Jatin Patel, who is also vice-president of US Youth Cricket Association (317-414-3989) <http://www.indianacricket.org>.

Awesome work in USA youth cricket, at least school kids will learn how to play and understand this game from alien nations.
